Mmmmmmmmmm Numb. 5240

The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, Auguſt 7. 1718.

From the Amſt. Courant, dated Aug. 11.

Wilda, July 24.

THE King's Writs for calling a General Diet to meet the [illegible] of Auguſt, are Yeſterday [illegible] and are already notified. The Roſſians gave out that they were going to De[illegible] are ſtill in the Waywoodſhip of Brac[illegible] and intend to go to Grodno at the time of the Aſſembly of the Diet. Letters from Mohilow mention, that 6 Ruſſian Regiments of Horſe, and as many Foot, were march'd from Smolenſko into the Territory of Orſzanck.

Chriſtiana, July 23. The Enemy begin to march, and approach our Borders in Parties to gain Intelligence. In the Night of the 17th and 18th Inſtant, they by night ſet the Half Gallies and double Chaloups from Dromſtade, over Land, to a freſh Water called Idefiord, where our Men immediately attack'd them, but finding the Enemy too powerful, they were oblig'd to retire, with the Loſs of one Lieutenant and three private Soldiers kill'd, and ſix wounded. We are daily in getting together a Number of Veſſels to drive them out. In the mean time our whole Army are upon their Guard [illegible] them, in caſe they ſhould go to break thro' our Frontiers.

Copenhagen, Aug. 6. Laſt Wedneſday we received Advice from Norway, that the Swedes with great Difficulty had brought two Half Gallies, two double, and two ſingle Chaloups, with one arm'd Ship, into the Swineſund; that our Brigantines which lay there, had endeavour'd to hinder them, but in vain, the Swedes having planted many Cannon upon the oppoſite Shoar. The Swedes give out, that they will attack Norway with all their Strength, and that the King of Sweden, when all is ready, will fall at the ſame time into Sealand with a Body of Troops; but theſe Threats do not at all fright us. Our King is return'd to this City, but will in a ſhort time take Tour to Laland. The Fleet lies ſtill near Bornholm.

Copenhagen, Aug. 6. 'The King came 'on Wedneſday Evening to Fredericksburg, 'and the Privy Council, all the Chancery, 'and his Retinue, arrived here the next 'Day. His Majeſty himſelf arriv'd Yeſter-'day, and will tarry here till Wedneſday 'next. The laſt Letters we received from 'Norway tell us, that the Swedes had car-'ried ſome little Boats and Veſſels over 'Land, to put them upon a Lake on our 'Side, and had planted Cannon on them, 'with which they approach'd our Poſts, in 'Hopes to have made themſelves Maſters 'of them; but they were ſo well receiv'd, 'that they could gain nothing, except 'the killing a Lieutenant and ten Soldiers, 'and we believe they loſt as many on 'their Side. Our Men have likewiſe ſent 'over Land a like Number of Veſſels, upon 'which we ſhall place Cannon of a larger 'Bore, to ſink thoſe of the Enemy's. They 'add alſo, that the King of Sweden reſolves 'to enter this Kingdom, coſt what it will. 'Of which we impatiently expect the Iſſue. 'We juſt now hear, that Lieutenant-Gene-'ral Morner will return hither very ſpeedi-'ly, and 'tis believ'd he will enjoy the ſame 'Office here as formerly. The Son in Law 'of P. Fluyer arriv'd two Days ago in this 'Port with a Prize taken in the Baltick la-'den with Iron: He reports, that our Pri-'vateers and thoſe of the Confederates have 'taken many Prizes in that Sea, belonging 'to Lubeck, Dantzick, Coningsberg and 'Roſtock. 'Tis ſpoken as certain, that the 'Dutch Rear Admiral has received Orders 'from his Maſters to join the Confederate 'Fleet in the Baltick, and act conjunctly 'with them. The Navigation being free, 'we daily receive Ships from all Parts of the 'Baltick, with Proviſions and other Neceſ-'ſaries.

From the Hag. and Amſt. Cour. Aug. 11, 12.

Vienna, July 30. Two Days ago, a Courier was ſent away to Belgrade, and it is ſuppos'd he carries the Emperour's Ratification of the Treaty. Several Regiments of the Imperial Army will be ſent from Hungary to Sileſia, and the Frontiers of Poland, but a good Number will ſtill remain in Hungary. The ſeven Regiments of Horſe, and the ſix Regiments of Foot, purſue their March to Italy the neareſt Way thro' Croatia; and 'tis computed, that thoſe, with the four Regiments of Horſe, and ſeven of Foot which are already in Lombardy, together with the two Regiments of Horſe, and ſeven of Foot that are in Naples, will make together an Army of 60000 Men. The Count de la Fontana, Miniſter of the Duke of Savoy, has almoſt every Day Audience of the Emperour. 'Tis ſaid, the Duke in his Letter to the Emperour has made uſe of theſe Terms; La perfidia de'Spagnoli ſi ha moſtrata a tal ſegno, che jo ho de temere d'eſſer il Sacrifizo; that is, The Perfidy of the Spaniards is ſo viſible, that I have all reaſon to fear I ſhall be made their Victim. The ſaid Duke earneſtly deſires the Emperour's Aſſiſtance, and aſſures him that he will faithfully contribute his Powers in the Conqueſt of Sicily for the uſe of his Imperial Majeſty, to whom he will ſurrender it for ſuch Equivalent as his Majeſty will pleaſe to give him, provided he may ſtill retain the Title of King.

Hamburgh, Aug. 9. 'We have heard no-'thing ſince of the Affair of Heſſe Caſſel, 'unleſs it be that the Troops of the Circles 'to whom the Execution againſt the Land-'grave is committed, are retired towards 'Hirſchfeld, to ſee if they can enter the 'Country on that Side, having been adver-'tiz'd by their Spies, that that is the Place 'that may be forced with the leaſt Difficul-'ty. In the mean time, we flatter ourſelves 'ſtill that this Affair may be amicably ad-'juſted, eſpecially if it be true, that French 'Troops are in March to aſſiſt the Land-

'grave of Heſſe Caſſel, in Caſe Force be 'uſed to drive him out of Rhynfels.

'Tis written from the Poliſh Pruſſia, that 'the Ruſſian Troops expect a Reinforce-'ment of ſome Regiments to lodge them-'ſelves in the Quarters and Dependencies of 'Dantzick, in Order to oblige that City to 'furniſh the Frigates which the Czar de-'mands of them. But the Peace being now 'made with the Turks, and the Emperour 'cauſing his Troops to march into Sileſia, 'to put the Affairs of Mecklemburg into 'Order, the Magiſtrates of Dantzick ſeem 'not now to have the ſame Occaſion to be 'in Fear; and 'tis believ'd they will perſiſt 'in their Refuſal.

'We hear from Mecklemburg, that the 'Duke has ſuſpended for ſome time the 'Execution of the Order he had given out, 'for ſeizing the Goods, moveable and im-'movable of Widows, and there is Reaſon 'to believe that Order will never be put in 'Execution.

'They write from Carelſcroon, that 12 'Men of War of the Line, quite equipp'd 'and ready to ſail, lie there, but it is not 'known yet what Service they are deſign'd 'for.

'Letters from Copenhagen of the 6th of 'Auguſt adviſe, that the Swedes from Strom-'ſtad have with much Difficulty got into the 'Swineſund with ſome armed Ships, which 'they ſeconded by a Battery of Cannon 'they had raiſed for that purpoſe. And 'that the Danes, after having made all poſ-'ſible Reſiſtance, were obliged to ſuffer it.

London, Auguſt 7.

We underſtand that here are Letters from Turin by the way of France, which ſay that the Garriſon of Meſſina has been reinforc'd with three Batallions, and ſix Companies of Grenadiers drawn from Syracuſe: So that there are now in that Place 5000 Men of good regular Troops. And that 6000 Men, Imperialiſts, are marching to Reggio, in order to be tranſported thither, in purſuance of the Agreement made with his Sicilian Majeſty.
